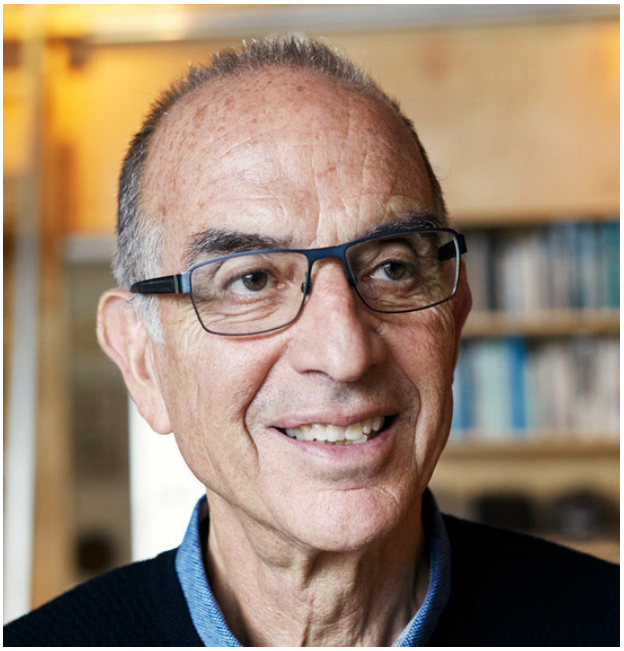
Click here to Zoom with us. Everybody is welcome!

Will profit overtake our public lands?



Ken Greenberg, urban designer in cities around the world, will speak about the pending renewal of landmark public spaces on the Waterfront. Will they be costly and run by corporate businesses, or become the green, innovative spaces intended for Toronto's growing population? Ken tells it like it is!

Also hear about:

- The Waterfront Neighbourhood Police's summer report
- News from our elected Waterfront politicians
- Queens Quay Station must grow with high demand
- Big 'thank you' from YQNA's treasurer
- Get out the vote for our new city councillor!
